(Code 1930, art. 11, § 47; 1943, ch. 740, § 1; Char. Res. 2-93, 7-14-93.)

Section 16-64. Same – Authority of mayor and council to purchase property.

The mayor and council of Brunswick may purchase, in their discretion, at a tax sale, any property offered for sale for the payment of taxes; provided that they shall not bid a sum greater approximately than the taxes in arrears on such property and the interest and expenses of sale and costs. They may sell and convey or lease the same, as in their judgment and discretion shall be deemed best for the interest of the city. (Code 1930, art. 11, § 47; 1943, ch. 740, § 1.)

Section 16-65. Same – Personal property.

If any person shall be assessed upon the assessment books of the city with personal property only and the amount of taxes levied thereon shall remain unpaid on the first day of January next succeeding the annual levy of taxes in the city, the city administrator and tax collector shall, within one month after the first day of January in each year or within one month after the discovery of any property belonging to such delinquent, levy upon such portions of the personal property assessed to such delinquent taxpayers, as may be necessary to pay such taxes, interest, costs and fees, as herein provided, in the same manner as the sheriff of the county is authorized by law to levy upon property on execution on judgments issued out of the circuit court for the county and shall advertise and sell such personal property in the same manner as is required by law in case of sales of personal property by the sheriff of the county and deliver the property so sold to the purchaser thereof. For the purpose of the levy of the sale, the city administrator and tax collector shall have all the powers lawfully exercised by the sheriff of the county in enforcing executions on judgments of the circuit court for the county and shall, if necessary, have the same powers prescribed by law for the levy upon and sale of shares of stock in any association or corporation which the sheriff of the county may possess in enforcing executions on judgments of the court. The city administrator and tax collector shall be entitled to receive out of the proceeds of sales made under this section the same fees and allowances as are allowed by law to the sheriff of the county on executions. Out of the proceeds of sale of such personal property, the city administrator and tax collector shall pay all costs and expenses incident to such sale and the taxes in arrears thereon, together with interest, and the surplus, if any shall be paid over to such delinquent taxpayer.

This section shall be construed as an addition to, and not as a substitution for, the powers of the city administrator and tax collector to collect taxes assessed upon personal property by suit. It is hereby expressly provided that the city administrator and tax collector, if he deems such course advisable, may proceed to collect any and all taxes due upon such personal property by suit, in the name of the mayor and council of Brunswick, before any justice of the peace, in and for the county or in the circuit court for the county. (Code 1930, art. 11, § 47; 1943, ch. 740, § 1; Char. Res. 2-93, 7-14-93.)

The City shall have the power to levy and collect taxes in the form of special assessments upon property in a limited and determinable area for special benefits conferred upon such property by the design, installation, construction [construction], maintenance, repair and removal of water mains, sanitary sewer mains, storm water sewers, roads and public ways and sidewalks [sidewalks] or parts thereof, curbs, gutters [gutters], walls and retaining walls, and other public improvements and projects and to provide for the payment of all or any part of the above improvements and projects out of the proceeds of such special assessments. (Res. No. 03–03, 5–28–03.)

Section 16–77. Procedure.

The procedure for levying and collecting special assessments, whenever authorized in this Charter, shall be as follows:

(a) Costs. The cost of the improvement or project shall be assessed according to the front foot rule of apportionment or some other equitable basis determined by the mayor and council.

(b) Assessment. The amount assessed against any property for any improvement or project shall not exceed the value of the benefits accruing to the property therefrom, nor shall any special assessment be levied which shall cause the total amount of special assessments levied by the City and outstanding against any property at any time, exclusive of delinquent installments, to exceed twenty–five per cent (25%) of the assessed value of the property after giving effect to the benefit accruing thereto from the project or improvement for which assessed.

(c) Classes. The mayor and council may, when it considers it to be beneficial, divide the affected property into different classes to be charge [charged] different rates, but except for this, any rate shall be uniform.

(d) Levy, hearing. All special assessments charges shall be levied by the mayor and council by ordinance. Before levying any special assessment charges, the mayor and council shall hold a public hearing. Notices shall be given stating the nature of extent of the proposed project, the kind of materials to be used, the estimated cost of the project, the portion of the cost to be assessed, the number of installments in which the assessment may be paid, the method to be used in apportioning the cost, and the limits of the proposed area of assessment. The notice shall also state the time and place at which all persons interested, or their agents of [or] attorneys, may appear before the mayor and council and be heard concerning the proposed project and special assessment. Such notice shall be given by sending a copy thereof by mail to the owner of record of each parcel of property to be assessed and to the person in whose name the property is assessed for taxation and by publication of a copy of the notice at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the town. If the owner is unknown or is absent, then the affected property may be posted with the notice. The City Administrator shall present at the hearing a certificate of publication and mailing, or posting as the case may be, of copies of the notice; however, failure to present such certificate shall not invalidate the proceedings. The date of the hearing shall be set at least ten and not more than thirty days after the newspaper publication as provided in this section. Following the hearing the mayor and council, in its discretion, any [may] vote in accordance with regular legislative procedures to proceed with the project and may [and may] levy the special assessment.

(e) Judicial Review. Any interested person aggrieved by the levying of any special assessment under the provisions of this section may, within thirty days after the levying of any assessment by the mayor and council, request judicial review of the levying of the assessment in accordance with the provisions of the Maryland Rules pertaining to Judicial Review of Administrative Agency Decisions.

(f) Payment. The mayor and council may make the special assessments payable in annual or more frequent installments over such period of time, not to exceed twenty years, and in such manner, as the mayor and council may determine.[.] The mayor and council shall determine on what date installments shall be due and payable interest may be charged on installments at the rate to be determined by the mayor and council. The mayor and council may provide that the entire special assessment, or any remaining portion thereof, shall be paid in full in the event of a sale, conveyance or other transfer of any or all of the property.

(g) Overdue. All special assessment installments shall be overdue six months after the date on which they become due and payable. All special assessments shall be liens on the property, and all overdue special assessments shall be collected in the same manner as City taxes or any other means permitted by law for the collection of taxes.

(h) Bills. All special assessments shall be billed and collected by the City Administrator or the Treasurer for Frederick County. (Res. No. 03-03, 5-28-03.)

NOTES

(1) The resolution which adopted this section designated it as section 16–10. Since a section numbered 16–10 is in existence, this section has been designated 16–9.1.

(2) For case holding that a vested remainder interest in real property does not satisfy the property requirements of this section, see Flynn v. Parker, 130 Md. 429, 100 Atl. 739.

(3) The Act from which this article is derived was approved April 15, 1937, and took effect as of the date of passage.

(4) Charter Resolution 1–80, which would have raised the Mayor’s salary to $500, was defeated in a referendum held on August 5, 1980.

(5) Charter Resolution 2–80, which would have raised the salary of members of the City Council to $200, was defeated in a referendum held on August 5, 1982.

(6) Although this section specifies a 2 year term of office for the chief of police, Section 16–31 was amended in 1974 to provide for a 4 year term for the chief of police and other city officials. That section apparently supercedes [supersedes] this section.

(7) Charter Resolution 3–92, effective December 11, 1991, changed the corporate name of Brunswick from Town to City. The resolution changed every reference in the charter from “town” to “city”. The entire charter was reprinted in September, 1992 to reflect this change.

(8) Resolution BR–R00–06, effective October 27, 2000, provided for the annexation of 141.35257 acres of land, more or less. Resolution 02–05, effective May 10, 2002, provided for the annexation of 455.7 acres of land, more or less. These resolutions, however, failed to provide for the change in the boundary description that is contained in this charter. Accordingly, these annexations are simply noted pursuant to the municipal general powers section of this charter.
